

22 DAYS OF PRAYER FOR YOUR PTSD PARTNER

Day 15

Song:

Bible Verse:

“No longer will your sun set, or your moon wane; for the Lord will be your light forever, and the days of your grieving will be over. Your people will all be just; for all time they will possess the land; they are the shoot that I planted, the work of My hands, that I might be glorified” Isaiah 60: 20-21.

Commentary:

Daily Prayer:

22 Days of Prayer for your PTSD partner:

Dear PTSD Partner,

We pray today that “the days of your grieving...be over” and that “the Lord will be your light forever.” We pray that the Lord bless and keep you safe always. We pray healing over the cracks in your heart that they become so filled with His light and love that you sparkle more and more with every step. We pray that for every negative thought that enters your mind that God swiftly floods your mind with so many positive thoughts that you do not even notice the one. We pray life into your lungs, that every breathe you take be filled with His richness and glory, so that you come to know that the joy of the Lord is your strength. In Jesus Name We Pray, Amen!

