

Opening A Door

This week we looked back at a time when a door was closed for us, but we also looked back at a time when a door was opened for us. We also learned to knock on God's door to ask for guidance. Over this next week, take time to continue to knock on His door each day. It's actually open 24/7, so you don't have to knock hard. He will be there and will listen.

Activity for the Mind

Schedule 30 minutes with God daily this week. Seriously, make an appointment on your planner and truly make this a goal! Read the question in your journal and sit silently. You do not need to focus on these questions in any particular order. Choose a question that appeals to you that day. Your choice might be based on a particular Bible verse or song that is playing in the back of your mind or a situation that you are working through. Wait on God. He will answer you. Breathe. Clear your mind. Breathe again. Listen to His voice. Write down everything you hear. You will most likely need another sheet of paper. Don't stop writing until He is finished. Read it.

Date it. Plan to come back to it.

Day 1:

Date: _____

God, I want to thank you so much for the work you are doing through me. Am I doing the work that you have called me to do? _____

Day 2:

Date: _____

God, thank you so much for _____.

What are your plans for us/me?

Day 3:

Date: _____

What question/s do you have for God?

His answer:

Day 4:

Date: _____

Lord, I am struggling with _____.

Can you help me?

Day 5:

Date: _____

Lord, I am incredibly grateful for the body that you have provided me with. How do you want me to use it/fuel it? _____

Day 6:

Date: _____

What question do you have for God?

His answer:

Day 7:

Date: _____

Thank you so much for our time together this week, Lord! What is it that you want me to take away from this experience? _____
